Savannah River Remediation Donates Clothing, Funds to Group that Assists Augusta Homeless

AIKEN, S.C. (December 13, 2010) – Jim French, Savannah River Remediation LLC (SRR) President and Project Manager (left), presents two gifts from SRR to GAP Ministries of Augusta, which helps the homeless with clothing and meals. First, bins full of socks, hats, gloves and scarves, $1,000 worth of clothing, were donated to the homeless shelter. In addition, a $1,000 check was presented to GAP Ministries Board Chair Elaine Lea and her husband, Jimmy Lea, GAP Ministries volunteer, to use as needed in the shelter. The presentation was made at the annual SRR Executive Staff Holiday Gathering. SRR is the Savannah River Site (SRS) Liquid Waste contractor, and SRS is owned by the U.S. Department of Energy. SRR is composed of personnel from a team of companies led by URS with partners Bechtel National, CH2M Hill and Babcock & Wilcox. Critical subcontractors for the contract are AREVA, Energy Solutions and URS Safety Management Solutions.
