SRR Employees Support United Way's Project Vision

Savannah River Remediation (SRR) employees traded in computers and offices for rakes, paint brushes and the outdoors on March 26 in support of the United Way of Aiken County's Project Vision "Day of Caring." At left, Kent Gilbreath, Doug Bumgardner and Shirley Lott rake leaves outside Prime Time Family Y in North Augusta while Byron Neely, aided by KeShaun Raiford, paint the inside of the children's day care center. Prime Time offers morning and afternoon day care services for children whose parents are at work. SRR is an annual supporter of the United Way's Project Vision. SRR is the Liquid Waste contractor at the Savannah River Site, which is owned by the U.S. Department of Energy. SRR is a team of companies led by URS Corp. with partners Bechtel National, CH2M Hill and Babcock & Wilcox. Critical subcontractors for the contract are AREVA, Energy Solutions and URS Safety Management Solutions.
